New Officers Sworn in at Clearlake Police Department

Clearlake, CA – January 29th, 2018

On Monday, January 29th, Interim Chief Tim Celli swore in new Police Officer, Daniel Eagle, and new Animal Control Officer, John Moretz. According to Interim Chief Celli, “I’m happy to see us rebuilding after losing several officers last year to other agencies. This helps us toward our mission of enhancing public safety by providing professional, trustworthy service in partnership with the community.”

According to Mayor Bruno Sabatier, “Hiring Officers Eagle and Moretz, who are both long time local residents, is exactly what the city needs to meet its goals of making our city safer.” City Manager, Greg Folsom, added “We continue to add quality officers to our police department and we are pleased to have Officer Eagle and Officer Moretz join our Clearlake team. With the addition of Officer Moretz, the City will soon be able to have an animal control officer on duty seven days per week, thereby increasing our service to the community.”
